CCGNJ PGAM Webinar: Gambling: A Public Health Issue

Friday, March 15, 2024, at 11:00 am

The Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey (CCGNJ) will present the third in its Problem Gambling Awareness Month (PGAM) webinar series on March 15. PGAM is dedicated to raising awareness about gambling problems and related issues, which have increased significantly in the last five years. The Council's 2024 PGAM theme is "Betting on Change: Confronting the Surge in Problem Gambling."

The hour-long webinar, entitled "Gambling: A Public Health Issue," will be presented by Greg Gioe, the CCGNJ's Peer and Program Quality Assurance Specialist, on Friday, March 15, 2024, at 11:00 a.m.

Webinar description: While gambling is older than written history, gambling on a mass, industrialized scale is an innovation that occurred over the last few decades. As more states pass laws legalizing gambling, how do we address this issue and help those who have a problem? What actions can we take to mitigate the damage done as a result of the legalization and proliferation of gambling? Does making it legal equate to making it safe? These and other questions need answers now more than ever.

One (1) CEU credit will be awarded at the end of the webinar to attendees who take the required, brief pre- and post-webinar quizzes.
